EXPECTATIONS AND FACIAL
COVERING EXPECTATIONS

President Darragh provided the Board of Education with information for this year's MASB annual leadership conference. The conference in its entirety will be held virtually instead of in person. Since their governing documents do not allow voting to be held virtually, no action needs to be taken to determine who attends as delegates and alternates, so all are welcome to attend. If you would like to attend, please let Michelle know so she can get you registered.

COVERING EXPECTATIONS

Superintendent Palmer reviewed the report he sent to the Board of Education members this past weekend. He apologized for not getting his report into the board packet before it was released.

BOARD
COMMUNICATIONS
SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Andrew Jennings, and Adam Larotzy, newly hired teachers at the middle school, introduced themselves, and commented that they are really excited to get started this year.

PUBLIC AND BOARD
COMMENTS

DJ Logan, Gateway North kindergarten teacher, welcomed the new hires and wished the retirees well. She also thanked the Board of Education for their discussion this evening on the facial covering expectations.

The members of the Board of Education welcomed the new hires. They thanked and commended the administrative team for their efforts with the Return to Learn plan.

President Darragh added that these are uncertain times for the district, as well as the State and economic forecasters; none of us have done this before.

President Darragh adjourned the meeting at 8:27 p.m.
