Dear Prospective St. Johns Youth Baseball Association Scholarship Applicant:

The St. Johns Youth Baseball Association wants to recognize the efforts of students who are academically successful while also being involved in their high school and community. It is not a requirement that the applicant has participated in high school athletics; however, emphasis will be placed on the amount of involvement in school and community activities. Consideration will be given to all St. Johns High School seniors who have shown evidence of acceptable academic achievement and commitment to their school and community.

NAME _____

1. List participation in St. Johns Youth Baseball Association.
2. List school extracurricular activities (athletics, clubs, fine arts, etc.).
3. List community activities.
4. List any honors and awards received.
5. List colleges, universities or vocational schools where you have been applied.

6. List any jobs and work experience you have.

7. State the course of study which you plan to follow.

8. Describe your long term goals following college graduation.

9. Briefly tell the committee how academic achievement and community involvement will enhance your future and the community in which you live.
